DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it is not presented on a separate sheet as required. Currently the Abstract is the cover sheet from the related PCT application. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Objections

2. Claims 1, 2, 17 and 18 are objected to because of the following informalities:

In claims 1 and 2, in the preamble, the phrase “in that includes” appears to be missing some language.

In claim 17, line 2, it appears --said-- should be inserted before “third column”

In claim 18, line 1, in the preamble, the phrase “characterized in that is totally” appears to be missing some language.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
4. Claims 12 and 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 12 recites the limitation "the belt means third" in lines 1-2 . There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. (Dependency from claim 1)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

7. Claims 1-6, 11, and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Zecchi et al. USP 5,881,860.

Zecchi et al. Teach the claimed invention as shown on the attached marked up drawing figure 1 of Zecchi et al. Zecchi et al. Fail to teach the first and third belt means. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have any number of upstream conveyors since it is well known that in a production/packaging environment, several conveyors are almost always used to manipulate the products from station to station and in the present case, Zecchi et al. provides a control unit capable of performing the functions as recited in claim 1 as if there were more than one conveyor. In figure 1 of Zecchi et al., there is a broken line indicating that the conveying device moves upstream to the left of the page.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 7-10 and 13-18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

9. Claim 12 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
